

AIP Most Outstanding Physics Award

Australian Institute of Physics (AIP) is once again awarding three prizes totalling $500 for projects involving autonomous technology which best represent the theme, "Drones, droids and robots".

$250 First Place Award for a Year K-12 student

$150 Second Place Award for a Year K-12 student

$100 Third Place Award for a Year K-12 student

Last year's Winners

- 1st: Georgia Batson (Year 10), Meriden School, BinGo - A self-driving bin carrier
- 2nd: Sam Watson (Year 9), Armidale High School, Comparison of the lifting ability of an Artificial Exoskeleton (mechanical arm) versus an Unaided Arm
- 3rd: Kira Macarthur (Year 6), Homeschool - Menai, uROVer - Underwater ROV